Purpose of the Job

The Office Administration Receptionist may be the guest's first interaction with Mount St. Louis Moonstone Ski Resort, so we need to make sure it is consistently a positive one. Each guest that walks into Mount St. Louis Moonstone Ski Resort will be welcomed and acknowledged with positive customer service. An Office Administration Receptionist is responsible for ensuring the guest is provided with the highest level of service and that our standards are met and maintained at all times. With a combination of a passion for the job and the right communication with other departments, an Office Administration Receptionist has the ability and empowerment to make the guest's experience more than memorable. An Office Administration Receptionist must have a positive and professional upbeat personality with a desire to deliver outstanding customer service to our guests.
